

MSA feedback

Report: Producer - Company specifications non-compliance

This report can be used for a single kill date or over time to track compliance trends.

Producer List
KillDate Between Wednesday, 1 January 2014 to Wednesday, 31 December 2014

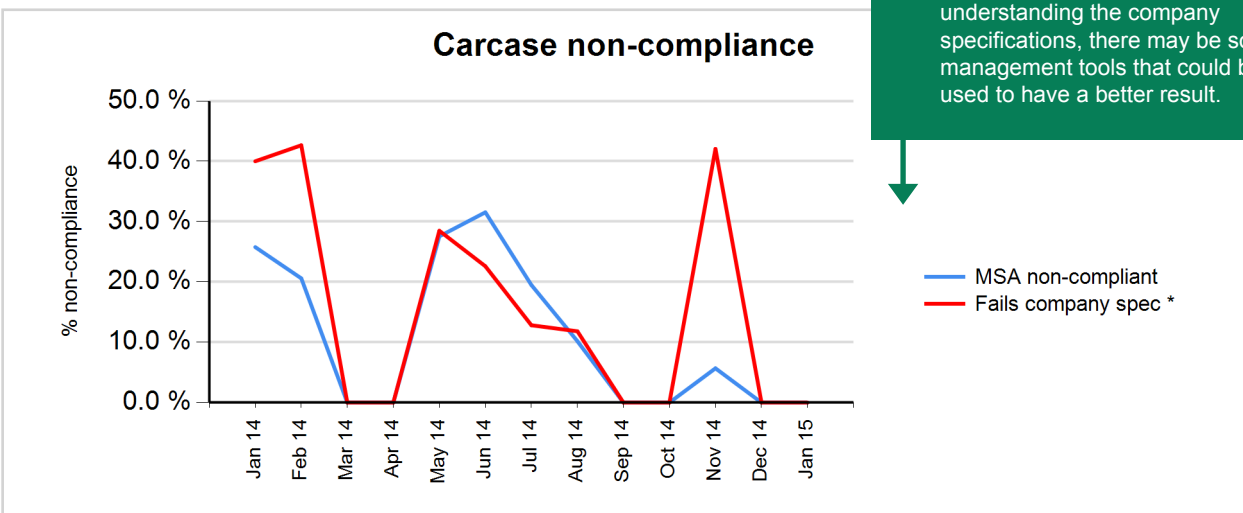

Total carcasses presented for MSA grading:	2,318
Compliant to MSA requirements and company specifications:	1,336	57.64%
Compliant to MSA requirements, fails company specifications:	514	22.17%
Non-compliant to MSA requirements:	468	20.19%

A summary of compliance to MSA requirements and company specifications is provided.

This graph shows that over 20% of the cattle consigned met the MSA minimum requirements but failed to meet the company specifications. It is important to know what the company specifications are by contacting the processor.

*These carcasses have met MSA requirements but failed a company specification.

This graph tracks compliance over time. It shows that non-compliance to company specifications was greatest in February and November. By understanding the company specifications, there may be some management tools that could be used to have a better result.

*These carcasses have met MSA requirements but failed a company specification.